

THE REVIVAL IS GROWING IN INTEREST

DESPITE INCLINEMENT WEATHER
DR. COOPER PREACHED TO
TWO GOOD SIZED CONGREGA-TIONS YESTERDAY.

In spite of the storm there was a rising tide of real religious interest at the Broadway Baptist Church Sunday morning. This was noticeable in the Bible school where 195 were in attendance. This was also apparent in the increased size of the morning congregation. Not only was the old guard present but also many new faces. The subject was "The Departing Savior and the Promised Power," Acts 1:8.

In developing his theme the minister said in part:

First, that the disciples were distressed about what Christ's purposes were in regard to the future, whether he was about to restore the lost temporal kingdom of Israel at that time. He had been raised from the dead. Many of his dark sayings had been made plain. They could not doubt any more now that he was the true Messiah. Now, what about the future. "Are you at this time about to restore again the kingdom of Israel?" That is none of your concern, was the reply. The Father takes care of all that in his own way. The thing for you to do is to go into all the world and make known my gospel to all the nations. You can get along now better without my physical presence than you can with it. They did not think so, but it was true.

Second, though Christ was leaving his disciples, he was not leaving them without a teacher and helper, one who was to stand by their side and help them and make them strong, give them power for their work. They were to take up his mission and carry it on, for he said "As the Father hath sent me, so send I you into the world. They needed power to fulfill their mission and that power could not come from any human or earthly source. That power was to none less than the power of God, the Spirit of God, God within them, and at work within them. This was the great thing they must possess. No kind of human machinery, organization, native endowments, or human accomplishments, nothing we can conceive of apart from the Holy Spirit. He would give them power, that which makes things go.

Third, how does He give power. This we ought to know. Jesus said that he would teach them, quicken their memories and lead them into all truth. He was the Spirit of truth and he would enable them to see and understand the truth as they had never understood before. He would bear witness to Christ, revealing his character and mission to them in much clearer light than they had ever seen before. He would glorify Christ. He would give them liberty, courage, joy, and he would feed the fountains of their hearts as long as they lived in the midst of a hostile world. He would give them inner assurance of his presence and help and the Father's love would ever flood their hearts.

Fourth, The conditions of this power. Jesus said for them to tarry at Jerusalem till they be endowed with power from on high. The Scripture tells us that both men and women tarried for the ten days in an upper room in Jerusalem devoted to earnest and continued prayer. They were all of one accord in one place. They felt the need of the blessing and sought God for it. They could not go about their work without it. Jesus says, "If ye being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask it." It is conditioned upon our earnest prayer.

Peter said that God would give the Holy Spirit to all those who obeyed him. The disobedient cannot hope to have the spirit of power. The conditions are very plain and God is urgent that his children be fitted for their work here. Are we willing to fulfill the conditions?

The minister was aflame with his theme and closed with an impassioned appeal which swept his congregation. At its close a remarkable demonstration took place. He called for every man of his church who would pledge himself to seek this gift of power from God to take his hand. Dozens of men literally sprang for it. The same demonstration was manifest when he

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years'
Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

BAD DREAMS ARE SYMPTOMS

Of Health the Cause—Many Alarming Symptoms of Women's Ailments—How Cured.

Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me feel happy and healthy. Some time ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles."—Mrs. ELSIE J. THE EVENING SERVICE

A large congregation was present, filling the house, Sunday evening. The choir platform was full and the singing was at its best. Genuine progress was made in the purpose of the mission. Dr. Cooper spoke on "Taking Our Stand," basing his sermon on Acts 11:23. He said that God called all men to take their stand on the Lord's side. The call comes in many ways and is trust upon us. We cannot avoid it. No one can hide from God. We cannot escape him. Barnabas, a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, went to Antioch, a large and wicked city, to establish the new converts there, in the midst of their trials as disciples of the new despised and persecuted faith. His character and endowment of the Spirit, and good common sense, resulted in the furtherance of the splendid revival that had blessed the people. We want men like him now. Such men God will hear and their efforts he will bless. His name means "Son of Consolation." What a monument such a record is to any man. We ought to covet it with all our hearts. It meant a great deal to confess Christ in such a city as Antioch. The whole tide of everything there was against the new disciples but God was with them and they became the greatest church in early history. They put up a heroic fight for their faith in Christ and they won gloriously.

Great encouragement was held out to them to make their stand good and firm on the Lord's side. They would become associated with the very best people in that city whose ideals and ambitions were the very highest and whose services to humanity were the very best. Their side was right and good, and God would help them keep it. In declaring themselves for Christ they would help others to do so. One man strengthens another. Men lean upon each other in religion. Their side was sure to win. It is winning now.

The argument and appeal, while addressed to all, was specially applied last night to people who were understood to be professing Christians, and they were urged to take their stand on the right side in this revival, and to receive the liberty for service which the Holy Spirit will give.

An after-meeting was held in which the minister had a heart to heart talk with his flock urging them to stand by the meetings which they had voted to have. The plea was earnest and heart searching. He asserted that it was a most difficult thing in this city to mobilize the professing Christian forces. He appealed to the congregation still remaining in the house, many of whom were not professing Christians, if worldly professors were not a hindrance to them in coming to Christ. The appeal was endorsed by many nods of the head from prominent people present. There was a large gathering of men and women around the altar for prayer and renewal of their vows to God. The outlook is brightening. Meetings will be held every night this week.

If your child starts in its sleep, grinds its teeth while sleeping, picks at the nose, has a bad breath, fickle appetite, pale complexion, and dark rings under the eyes; it has worms; and as long as they remain in the intestines, that child will be sickly. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE clears out the worms, strengthens the stomach and bowels and puts the little one on the road to health and cheerfulness. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.

Liabie to Be Mad, Anyway.

"A man who gets mad if he can't have his own way," said Uncle Eben, "is liable to be jes' as mad after he gets it 'cause it didn't work out accordin' to his calculations."

Despondency.

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.
